Numb. 7369.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday January 18. to Tuesday January 21. 1734.

Petersbourg, December 24, O. S.

BY the last Advices this Court has received from Persia, they are informed that Tachmach Koulican has entirely defeated Surgai Chan, and has taken the Town where he resided, called Casicamachi; and the Persians are now actually besieging the Town of Jenga, which is not far from Teflis; so that probably they will be soon Masters of Georgia.

Hague, Jan. 25, N. S. The Damages caused by the Storm we had on Wednesday last, are very great in these Provinces: 'Tis reckoned that Amsterdam will suffer the Loss of two Millions of Florins by the Ships alone which were cast away in the Texel. The Prince of Orange is now determined to set out for Friesland on Friday next. The Princess Royal continues in perfect Health. A Yacht is gone to Moerdyk to receive the Marquess of St. Gilles, the new Ambassadour from the Crown of Spain, who is expected here on Thursday or Friday next. They are repairing as fast as possible the Spanish Hotel where he is to lodge, which was very much damaged by the late Storm. The States of Holland have resumed their Assembly to Day, and the Great Pensionary is to assist in it. Letters from Vienna of the 12th Instant, N. S. advise, that on the 7th, Field-Marshal Count Konigsegg arrived there from Italy, and immediately waited on the Emperor, and had a long Audience of him.

Admiralty-Office, Jan. 7, 1734.

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty being informed, that, notwithstanding His Majesty's Pleasure, signified to his Consuls residing in Foreign Parts, several Masters of Ships and Vessels belonging to His Majesty's Subjects which have come into the Ports where they the said Consuls reside, have upon their Demand, refused to produce to them the Passes which they have received, in order to their endorsing the same in the Manner they are required to do: Their Lordships do therefore hereby give Notice, that it is expected all such Masters of Ships or Vessels coming into any Port where there is any such Consul, do, at their Peril, strictly comply with his Majesty's Pleasure, by producing to them the Passes in their Possession; and that when any Ship or Vessel belonging to his Majesty's Subjects shall be sold at any Port abroad, where a British Minister or Consul doth reside, their Masters do deliver to such Minister or Consul their Pass; or if no such Minister or Consul, transmit them as soon as possible they can to this Office, in order to their being cancelled, that so they may not, to the Prejudice of the Trade of His Majesty's Subjects, fall into the Hands of Foreigners, otherwise their Bonds will be put in Suit with the utmost Severity of the Law. And their Lordships do hereby give Notice to all Masters of Ships or Vessels belonging to His Majesty's Subjects who may receive Passes, either from this Office, or from any of the Governors of His Majesty's Foreign Islands or Plantations, that by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of his present Majesty, it is made Felony, without Benefit of the Clergy, if any Erasement or Alteration whatsoever shall be found made in any such Passes. By Command of their Lordships,

J. Burchett.

Admiralty-Office, Jan. 17, 1734.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do hereby direct, that all Seamen belonging to His Majesty's Ship the Dunkirk, now at Portsmouth, do forthwith repair to their Duty on board the said Ship, as they will answer the contrary at their Peril.

By Command of their Lordships,

J. Burchett.

Victualling Office, Jan. 20, 1734.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy give Notice, that on Monday the 24th of February next, in the Forenoon, they shall be ready to treat with such Persons as are inclinable to furnish White and Bay Salt, as also Hambourgh Pipe and Hogshead Staves, for the Service of His Majesty's Navy.

Trinity House, London, Jan. 18, 1734.

The Master, Wardens, and Assistant of the Trinity House, give Notice, that the Sea Mark which was erected in 1708, at Ashey Down, in the Isle of Wight, in the Room of a Mill which stood there before, is lately blown down.
